WORLD MOUNTAIN & TRAIL RUNNING CHAMPIONSHIPS CHIANG MAI, THAILAND

SHORT TRAIL RACE – RESULTS

Saturday, November 4, 2022,

The SHORT TRAIL race of the Amazing Thailand World Mountain and Trail Running World Championships began at 7.30am from Chiang Mai Exhibition Centre. The athletes set off at a blistering pace to take on a rugged and hilly course of 38km with 2425m of ascent.

It took 3h08min29s for Norway's Stian Hovind ANGERMUND to win the title of World Champion of Short Trail! In the end he had 3 minutes to spare, but the gold medal was not won easily. The Italian Francesco Puppi was on Stian's heels for most of the race and took a well-deserved silver in 3h11min47s. The reigning World Champion, Team GB's Jonathan Albon, was also at the head of the race all along winning bronze in 3h13min05s. Team USA's Max King also ran an incredible race and took 4th place in 3h17min31s.
